SUMMER 1 - 2018 - JUNE 25-29 - 9 AM - 2:30 PM - "SLAVERY & ABOLITION IN NEW YORK" - Ages 6 - 14 - Five consecutive days, June 25 - 29. Teaching Artist Bertha Rogers: (Includes a bus trip to the National Abolition Hall of Fame & Museum in Peterboro, NY on the first day; also includes walks around Treadwell to find and visit stops on the Treadwell Underground Railroad, with information and assistance from Debbie Tuthill, Treadwell History Center). After we visit the Abolition Hall of Fame & Museum, we will select people from history to study, make dioramas of their lives and travels, and write about them. We will also make time-tunnel books of the Underground Railroad and pop-ups of their characters. On the last day we will present our projects to parents and friends. Cost: $120, which includes morning and afternoon snacks (students bring bag lunch). (Delaware Academy & CSD students, full scholarships; full and partial scholarships for Delaware and Otsego County students). See reverse to enroll.

SUMMER 2 - AUGUST 6 - 10 - 9 AM - 2:30 PM "TALES OF GLASS & OTHER BREAKING THINGS" - Ages 6-14. Taught by Master Teaching Artist, Bertha Rogers: (Includes a bus trip to the Corning Museum of Glass, Corning, NY, on the first day). There are many fairy tales that include glass and mirrors, among them Snow White, Cinderella, The Glass Mountain, and The Glass Mermaid. We will travel to the Corning Museum on the first day to learn about glass and how it is used; then we will listen to fairy tales that include glass and mirrors, and write our own as accordion or carousel books with glass insets. We will also make glass pendants/amulets with help from Debbie Tuthill, and the Treadwell History Center glass kiln. On the last day, we will present our projects to parents and friends. Cost: $120, which includes morning and afternoon snacks (students bring bag lunch). (Delaware Academy & CSD students, full scholarships; full and partial scholarships for Delaware and Otsego County students). See reverse to enroll.
