WHAT STORIES THE WALLS TELL: CAVE

ART AND ITS MAKERS

- February 17-21 (during Public School Winter Break) at Bright Hill Literary Center's Education Wing, 94 Church Street, Treadwell, NY. Space is limited, so early registration is advised (registration begins January 2 with a final deadline February 3; registration forms will be available on BHLC's website by January 10).

All Bright Hill Literary Workshops for Kids include writing and visual arts and incorporate science and math for projects; we believe in STEAM.

WHAT STORIES THE WALLS TELL:

CAVE ART AND ITS MAKERS will take the students on a virtual journey to Indonesia, where 44,000-year-old cave drawings that tell a story were found; the drawings feature a hunting scene with jungle buffaloes and wild boars stalked by part-human and part-animal hunters carrying spears and ropes. We will learn about these and other cave art during the week, then build our own papier-mâché caves with drawings and/or make animal masks and write our own legends, riddles, and poems about them. On the last day of the workshop, we will present an exhibit and program to parents and friends.

THE WORKSHOP takes place from 9 am - 2:30 pm; Bright Hill will provide morning and afternoon snacks, but kids should bring their own bag lunches.

CHILDREN ages 6 - 14 (first grade through 7th grade) are welcome to the workshop, which is designed and led by Bertha Rogers, master teaching artist and founding director of Bright Hill.
