SUMMER 1: June 26-30 – MEXICO/MAYAN/AZTEC ART &

GAMES: The artists of Central & South America created some of the world's most unusual art and games. We'll learn about them and create our own 2d paintings and papier mache sculptures, then write poems and riddles in the style of Pablo Neruda, Gabriela Mistral, and Caesar Vallejo. On the last day we will read our writings and present an exhibit of our projects for parents and friends. The cost is $250 for out-of-area students and $170 for regional students (cost includes morning & afternoon snacks (students bring their own lunch). Registration is limited to 22 students. (Delaware Academy students receive full scholarships; full and partial scholarships are available for Delaware and Otsego County students).

SUMMER 2: JULY 17-21: SPIDERS & TICKS AND OTHER

ARACHNIDS. There are lots of spiders & other Arachnids in the Catskills. We'll learn about them, make paintings or sculptures of them, then write poems and stories about them. We'll also memorize short poems about these creatures. The cost is $250 for out-of- area students and $170 for regional students (cost includes morning & afternoon snacks (students bring their own lunch). Registration is limited to 22 students. (Delaware Academy students receive full scholarships; full and partial scholarships are available for Delaware and Otsego County students).

SUMMER 3: August 21-25 - WOLVES & COYOTES & DOGS - We're all familiar with dogs, and we hear coyotes at night and wonder about wolves in America. We'll learn about them and create sculptures and dioramas about them, then write them down as stories, riddles, or poems. On the last day we will read our writings and present an exhibit of our projects for parents and friends. The cost is $250 for out-of-area students and $170 for regional students (cost includes morning & afternoon snacks (students bring their own lunch). Registration is limited to 22 students. (Delaware Academy students receive full scholarships; full and partial scholarships are available for Delaware and Otsego County students).

SUMMER 2023 - A LOOK AHEAD - REGISTRATION IN APRIL/MAY 2023!

Note: As you know, space is limited in our workshops, so it is important to SEND REGISTRATION FORM AS PDF OR HARDCOPY for your child as soon as possible.

Note: All Bright Hill Literary Workshops for Kids include writing and visual arts. Children ages 6-14 (and are in or have completed first grade are eligible. Workshops are led by Bertha Rogers, Master Teaching Artist (& Founding Dir., BHLC) and Master Teaching Artist Nick Kelsh.

MORE ABOUT BRIGHT HILL'S LITERARY WORKSHOPS PROGRAM

Note: The cost of Rogers' 5-day workshops is $250 ($170 for regional students), and $100 for Kelsh's all-day workshop, and full and partial scholarships are made possible by the Delaware Youth Bureau through the NYS Office of Child & Family Services and the New York State Council on the Arts, supported by Gov. Kathy Hochul & the NYS Legislature and available for permanent Delaware & Otsego County residents. Other scholarships are available on a limited basis, thanks to funding from the Dewar, A. Lindsay & Olive B. O'Connor, and Otis A. Thompson Foundations; the Delaware National Bank of Delhi, Stewart's Shops, Golden Artist Colors, and Bright Hill's members and friends. All Delaware Academy students receive full scholarships, made possible by the Abraham Kellogg Educational Fund. Sometimes, if possible, we make spring or summer trips to museums and other locations. Decisions about trips will be made in late April.

JUNIOR INTERNSHIP TRAINEE PROGRAM

BHLC continues its workshop internships program in 2023. It includes the BHLC Workshop Junior Internship Trainee Program, and it will be led by Bertha Rogers & Beatrice Georgalidis. To be eligible for the program, students must be in 7th grade or higher and must have completed at least (3) Bright Hill Literary Workshops for Kids programs. Trainees must participate in at least 2 of the 3 literary workshops offered during 2023; there is no payment for the first year, but during the second year, trainees will receive a $50 stipend for each 5-day workshop; during the third year, trainees will receive a $75 stipend for each 5-day workshop. During the first year, trainees will be assigned one younger student, and during the second year, one or two younger students. By the third year, trainees will work with various students. Each trainee will work with and report to Bertha Rogers, leader of the BHLC Literary Workshops for Kids Program. High-school students who are full-time residents of Delaware County are eligible for full and part-time summer internships that will also include working in the administrative offices with Beatrice Georgalidis.
